

About Colliers | Columbus

Colliers is a full-service commercial real estate organization serving our clients on a global basis. We are committed to being a leader in the commercial real estate services industry and structure our firm in a manner that allows us to best serve the needs of both our clients and our professionals and accelerate their success.

Colliers is committed to innovation and the desire for continuous improvement. This enterprising spirit gives our team members the energy to think unconventionally and offer their clients unique solutions. With a firm vision toward the future, Colliers isn't afraid of a challenge, and we foster the creativity to overcome those challenges.

Our professionals specialize in office, industrial, retail, multifamily and investment properties. Services provided within these specialties include project leasing, disposition, tenant and buyer representation, corporate services, property management, construction management, development, and consultation. We provide the best solutions to meet our clients' real estate requirements.
